About Richards & West

A Hallmark for Excellence

Since 1982, Richards & West has crafted fine jewelry to create exquisite pieces that blend a rich heritage of craftsmanship with a hallmark for excellence.

The history of Richards & West goes back to John Richard Keim. His gift and passion for the art of fine jewelry making and design established him as a master jeweler. As a young man, John devoted his skill and talent to creating a designer line of men's and women's jewelry, as well as elegant one-of-a-kind fine custom pieces for both jewelry stores and individual clients. With hard work and patience, his business flourished as he gained a reputation for his extraordinary abilities and craftsmanship.

Built on an uncompromising passion for artisanship, Richards & West's skilled in-house talent is renowned for their creativity and meticulous attention to detail. In pursuit of excellence, master jewelers use old world skills and modern technology to transform precious metals and gems into unique designs of the highest quality.

Over the years, Richards & West has melded the past and the present into magnificent and timeless pieces.

Today, Richards & West continues its mission of creating fine jewelry in its own workshop. Their work continues to be an icon for exceptional quality, innovative style and exemplary service. With passion, dedication and a constant pursuit of excellence, they strive to enrich the lives of their customers with distinctive pieces of beauty to be treasured for generations.

Richards & West is proud to be an American-made fine jewelry company. All of our fine jewelry is entirely made in our renowned in-house workshop in East Rochester, New York, USA.

Your Personalized Keepsake

Print Type

Any fingerprint, thumbprint, hand/footprint, a loved one's signature or artwork can be turned into a piece of fine jewelry. For infants, a hand/footprint supplied by the hospital will work best. We will be glad to supply an ink fingerprint kit to take your own prints at home if you do not already have them.

Selecting a Jewelry Design and Size

The Imprint On My Heart Collection offers a large selection of designs that appeal to both men and women. Please consider size when choosing the design that fits your needs. If you don't see exactly what you want, we will take your idea and create a unique piece just for you. Engraving is always included.

Choosing a Metal and Finish

All our keepsakes are solid cast, sturdy and ideal for everyday wear. We offer sterling silver, 14k in white, yellow, rose and green gold. In 18k, we offer white, yellow and rose gold. Some select pieces are also offered in platinum. A high polish or brushed finish is available for any keepsake.

Quality of Prints

If you have decided to order an Imprint On My Heart with a custom hand, finger, foot, paw or nose print, please note that the final results may vary based on the quality of the print and the type of metal chosen. Prints of infants and toddlers may not be as well defined as those of older children and adults. Prints in sterling silver can appear to have greater definition with a patina finish than prints in gold.
